Staff Meeting.

Afterwards, we had a meeting in the Secretary's office to discuss the situation in Iran and Egypt. An anti-American hate campaign is well under way in Iran, and the abdication of the King of Egypt has only added to confusion there.

Preston Grover came to see me. He has been in the United States on vacation, and is returning to Paris next week.

Allen Dulles came here to lunch with me, [redacted] We discussed chiefly the situation in Iran.

This afternoon Jack McFall briefed me on the forthcoming visits of various members of Congressional Committees to Europe, South America and the Far East.

Charlie the barber gave me a haircut.

Then I had a talk with Hank Byroade regarding Iranian problems.

Tonight, the Nitzes came to dinner with us.
